

Anti-Homosexuality Bill 2009 (Uganda):
A Critical Look at Some Impulses How to Respond

KinkForAll San Francisco, March 21 2010
Teach-In by Johanna Rothe

Some Useful Links

“Urgency is now required in Uganda”

by Sokari Ekine

<http://www.blacklooks.org/2010/02/urgency-is-now-required-in-uganda/>

Good short article which I recommend.

Sexual Minorities Uganda

<http://www.sexualminoritiesuganda.org/>

This site includes detailed notes about the Anti-Gay seminar that was held in March 2009 and taught by US evangelicals. Also lots of other information.

“Preaching Hate in Uganda”

from ABC News.

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XIXiNX71coc>

(The video from which I showed a short clip. We discussed the representational politics of this news video.)

And for those who want to go further:

Kapya Kaomo wrote a detailed report "Globalizing the Culture Wars. U.S. Conservatives, African Churches, & Homophobia" (sponsored by a U.S. progressive thinktank)

<http://www.publiceye.org/publications/globalizing-the-culture-wars/pdf/africa-full-report.pdf>

"African LGBTI Human Rights Defenders Warn Public against Participation in Campaigns Concerning LGBTI Issues in Africa Led by Peter Tatchell and Outrage!" (January 31, 2007)

mrzine.monthlyreview.org/increase310107.html

This is from 2007, so it obviously does not speak directly to what has been happening since then. But it's good to read it, because it tells you about some mistakes that need to be avoided when one does solidarity politics.